Dear Sir / Madam,

Last weekend it was my boyfriend's birthday and I knew he wanted a pair of blue trainers.

I didn't have much time to get them, so I decided to buy them from your webpage, because you promise fast delivery (1A) as well as great prices.

I had some problems with my computer, so I phoned your company directly (2A). You told me that you were sorry but you didn't have the model I liked in blue (3B), only in grey and red. My boyfriend hates red, so I decided to buy them in grey.

You sent them very fast, so I was really happy. But, when my boyfriend opened the box we saw that the trainers were red (4A). I felt terrible! I'm not going to recommend this webpage to anybody.

Regards

Dear Sir/Madam,

Last night my family and I visited your restaurant to celebrate my father's 70th birthday. My father loves Italy so when I first saw your pretty Italian restaurant I thought it was a great choice (6C).

The waiter that I spoke to said that you had special menus for special events (7C) so I looked on your webpage and saw a perfect menu for the family. I ordered our food online to save time.

When we arrived we had a great table by the window but we all received the wrong meals (8C). The manager explained that they didn't have the vegetable risotto and the spinach lasagne, so he gave us a different option.

I was not happy with the service and the menu that we got (9A). I pre-ordered to be sure to get the food that we wanted. The dinner was a disaster.

Regards
