Read this diary describing a typical day in the life of Paula Radcliffe, a marathon runner. Below are the two exercises you will have to do.

DON'T FORGET TO TRANSFER YOUR ANSWERS ONTO THE ANSWER SHEET.

8.30am

Sometimes, my daughter Isla wakes me and my husband Gary up or, more often, we wake her up. After I get up, I always check my pulse. If it is too high, I stay home for the day. It's so important to listen to my body. I have a drink and a snack while giving Isla her breakfast.

9.30am

We take Isla to school and then I start my training. I run, and Gary rides his bike next to me and gives me drinks. Four times a week, I have a cold bath or go for a swim in a lake after training.

12.30pm

I pick up Isla from school and we go home. I eat a big lunch of cereal and fruit. Then I have rice and salmon. I try to eat as soon as possible after training. After lunch, I play with my daughter.

2.00pm

I have a nap in the afternoon and Gary usually takes Isla out while I sleep. When I wake up, I have a drink and a snack while Isla has milk. I eat a lot during the day, especially bananas and dark chocolate.

5.00pm

I go running again. In total, I run about 145 miles every week. I write about all my runs in my training journal. I record everything, including how I feel and what the weather is like. I train hard every two days, go on an extra long run every four days and rest every eighth day.

7.00pm

In the evening, I do my exercises. These keep me strong during long runs. Gary gives Isla her dinner and cooks mine while I finish my exercises. Then I finish cooking dinner while Gary gives Isla her bath.

7.30pm

Gary and I eat our dinner. I have red meat four times a week with rice, pasta or potatoes and lots of vegetables. We also often eat Chinese or Japanese food, because it's quick and healthy.

8.00pm

We put Isla to bed and relax. I check my emails and watch TV or chat with Gary. I love police and hospital dramas!

10.30pm

Time for bed. While I am brushing my teeth, I stand on one leg and then the other. This keeps my legs strong. I enjoy reading, but I haven't read much since Isla was born.
